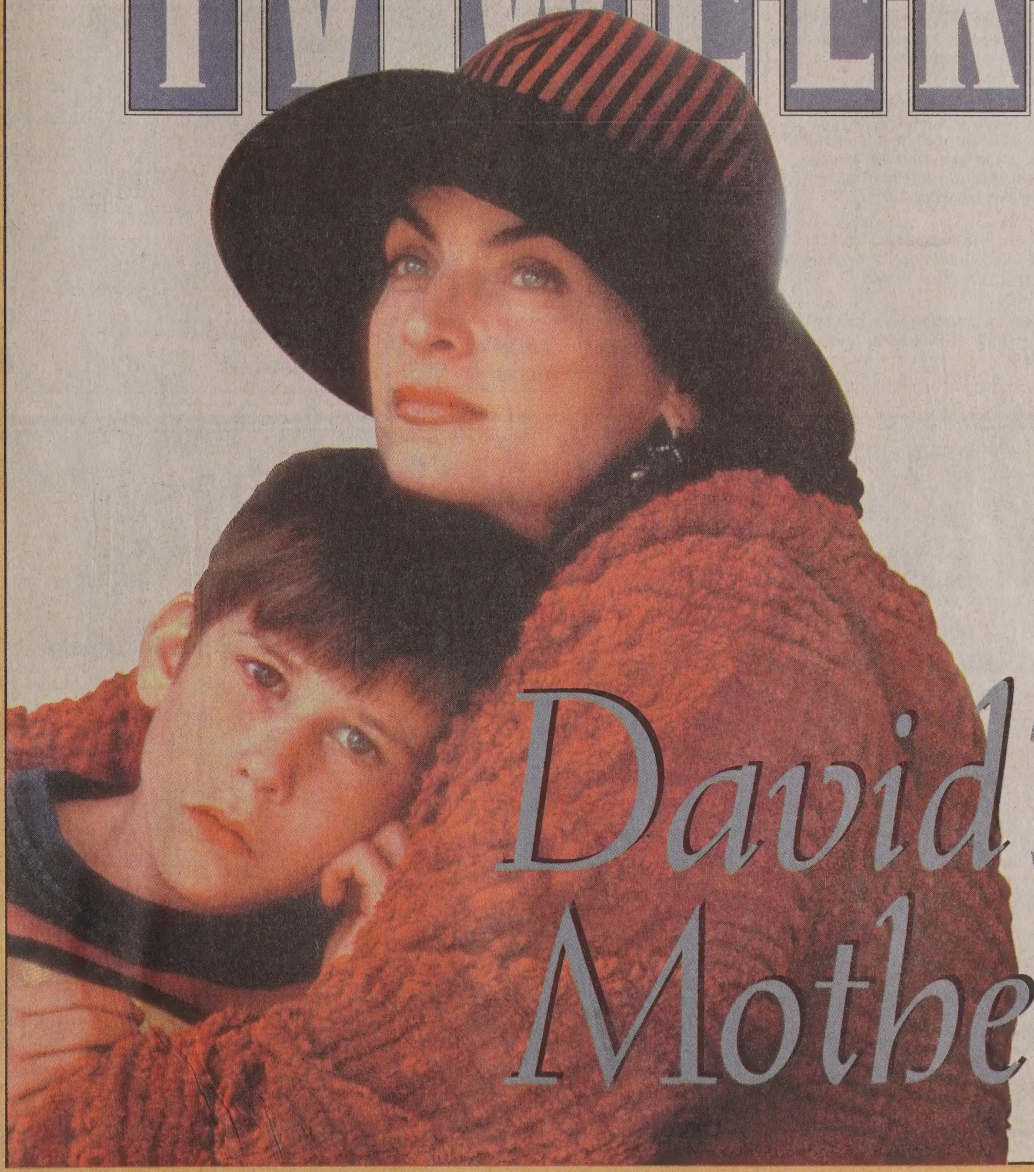
EAST BAY EDITION

TV WEEK



David's Mother

HOW TO USE TV WEEK

Different cable systems offer different channels, and offer them at different places on the dial. This book will help you find your favorite show no matter where you live.

▶ CHANNELS: The next page shows which channels are available on most cable systems in this area, and what number they're on.

▶ LISTINGS: In the daily listings, you'll find not only the channels, but also the number that each channel appears on in the biggest cable systems.

▶ PRIME TIME: Each day's listings are in easy-to-use charts: one for the morning, one for the afternoon, one for late night and two for prime time: separate listings for broadcast channels and for cable channels. This allows more descriptions of evening shows.

▶ MOVIES: The week's broadcast and cable movies are listed alphabetically at the front of the book. Pay Per View movies are listed on a separate page.

▶ QUESTIONS OR COMMENTS: Call us by using CityLine, (415) 512-5000. Enter category 2100.

ON THE COVER: Kirstie Alley stars in 'David's Mother' Sunday on CBS.

'David's Mother' — a subtle drama

BY TED KUSIO

Too many television movies deal with diseases or illnesses. And since they never seem to go beyond melodrama or pity, there's no real reason to watch a new one.

Or is there?

"David's Mother," which airs Sunday, April 10, on CBS, breaks free of the dull mold. Granted, it features a single mother struggling to raise her autistic son, but it's not the same old thing.

"It was written pretty well," explains Michael Goorjian, who plays the autistic David at age 17.

Instead of centering on the tragedy of autism, or the difficulties surrounding the upbringing of an autistic child, "David's Mother" is more subtle.

It's about a woman who is struggling with more basic aspects of life, and an autistic son is part of her life. Kirstie Alley stars as Sally Goodson, a witty and charismatic yet troubled woman who devotes all of her time and energy to raising her autistic son, David. Steve Ivany, who is autistic in real-life, portrays the young David, along with Goorjian.

But Sally's unconditional commitment to David alienates her daughter and husband, ultimately leading to divorce. Her sister, played by Academy Award-nominee Stockard Channing, offers support, but a social worker (Phylicia Rashad) awakens concern that David may need more than just his mother's love. Sally's new romantic relationship with a successful salesman (Sam Waterston) strengthens those concerns.

Alley, Channing and Waterston all shine in the foreground of "David's Mother," but it's Goorjian's portrayal of David that truly breathes life into the film. Part of this should be attributed to his understanding of autism.

Kirstie Alley and Steve Ivany star as a mother and her son

"Each individual has their specific things that they do, and routines," Goorjian says.

Because of this, he made sure he would portray David as an individual, not just a person with autism.

His research included observing autistic people at schools in Los Angeles and Toronto, where "David's Mother" was filmed. He also worked closely with Andrea Rifkin, who was technical consultant for the film. Rifkin works with autistic children in Toronto and is a pioneer in the development of alternative communication techniques.

Goorjian's effort and dedication to his role pay off with a wonderful performance in a film that manages to avoid cliches.

'Where In the World Is Carmen Sandiego?'

BY EVAN LEVINE

These days, the answer to the question in the title might well be "Everywhere." The enormously popular geography-based game with the dastardly Sandiego has appeared in a video game and not one, but two series for kids.

In this animated version, Carmen is still part of a video game, but the twist here is that a real kid (who is seen at the beginning), as well as the viewer, has to try to catch Carmen, who spends her time engaged in criminal pursuits, such as stealing artwork from various spots around the globe.

"I liked it. It's sort of weird, but it's also good," said Gregory, 7. "Actually, it's not really weird, but it's obvious that you can't do some of the things they do."

This much is indeed true: Carmen and her pursuers effortlessly and instantly move from spot to spot on the globe, along a complicated trail of clues. While viewers may have trouble deciphering the clues, they will learn some interesting facts along the way.

As Gregory explained, "I would watch it again. It's sort of good because it teaches you about geography."

"Sandiego" airs Saturday mornings on FOX.

SPECIALS

'Masterpiece Theatre: Middlemarch'

► PBS 9 p.m.

The dramatization of the massive George Eliot novel "Middlemarch" begins its six-and-a-half-hour saga of a town in Victorian England. Both the novel and the miniseries cover a lot of territory, since the original work was published in a serialized form — and both have a strong political thread and moral scope. In the first installment, the feisty heroine Dorothea Brooke (Juliet Aubrey) finds herself attracted to the cold-fish Rev. Casaubon (Patrick Malahide). Other performers include Robert Hardy as Dorothea's benevolent uncle and Caroline Harker as Celia, her affectionate sister.

'Martin'

► FOX 8 p.m.

Martin Lawrence stars in the comedy series that features the young comedian in unusual predicaments. In this episode, Gina (Tisha Campbell) mistakenly throws away courtside tickets to an upcoming basketball game while cleaning Martin's apartment.

MOVIES

'Eight Men Out'

► LIFE 7:30 p.m.

John Sayles' movie stars John Cusack as a member of the notorious 1919 Chicago White Sox team that accepted cash in exchange for throwing important World Series games. The scandal earned the team the name "The Black Sox" and helped change the face of organized team sports regulations. Sayles appears as sportswriter Ring Lardner in this original movie that offers a realistic look at baseball action in the early days of the sport.

'Memphis Belle'

► ABC 9 p.m.

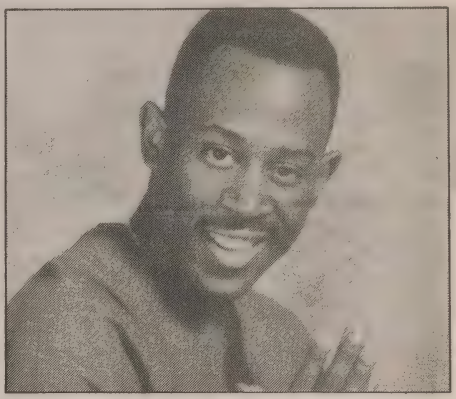
This is the bittersweet story about a group of young U.S. pilots in the last months of World War II action. Based on the 1943 documentary by Hollywood director William Wyler, the film concerns the final mission of the crew of the "Memphis Belle," a B17 bomber that was the air giant of its day. The cinematography features exciting — and realistic — reenactments of air fights over Germany. Co-stars Matthew Modine.



Martin Lawrence stars in the FOX comedy series 'Martin.'

'David's Mother'

► CBS 9 p.m.

This made-for-television film concerns a young mother (Kirstie Alley) who sacrifices her relationships and her personal freedom to care for her autistic son. Her sister (Stockard Channing) tries to help her by introducing her to an understanding man (Sam Waterston), who helps her come to grips with the true meaning of love — and the process of letting go.

Charlie Sheen stars in 'Navy SEALS.'

PRIME TIME

'704 Hauser'

► CBS 7:30 p.m.

The premiere of Emmy award-winning Norman Lear's comedy series stars John Amos, Lynnie Godfrey and T. E. Russell as a black family living at 704 Hauser Street — just coincidentally the former home of the Archie Bunker family. In the first episode, a blue-collar black liberal from Queens (Amos) has problems getting along with his ultra-conservative son Goodie (T. E. Russell) when he airs his opinions on "Face the Nation" with Bob Schieffer. Godfrey plays Rose, the devoted, religious and highly intelligent wife and mother who tries to keep the battleground out of her home. The series also co-stars Maura Tierney as a frequent visitor.

MOVIES

'Risky Business'

► FOX 8 p.m.

A teenager, Joel Goodsen (Tom Cruise), is left home alone — and the results are disastrous in this comedy film about growing up in the suburbs. When the industrious Joel accidentally sinks his father's Porsche, it takes a street-smart call girl (Rebecca De Mornay) to show him how to make things right — by way of the oldest profession.

'Unforgiven'

► HBO 8 p.m.

Gene Hackman won an Academy Award for his performance in this offbeat morality tale about the Old West. Clint Eastwood also garnered honors for directing — and starring in — this story about a gunslinger (Eastwood) who hates killing, but is brought out of retirement for one last hit.

'Navy SEALS'

► ABC 9 p.m.

Charlie Sheen stars in this action movie inspired by the elite commando unit formed during John F. Kennedy's administration. The cast includes Michael Biehn and Rick Rossovich and offers a look at U.S. covert action in Beirut as the SEALS fight off terrorists.

'Moment of Truth: Broken Pledges'

► NBC 9 p.m.

The true story of a fraternity hazing that led to the death of a college sophomore. A young man, Chuck Stenzel, was forced to consume large quantities of alcohol after he was locked in the trunk of a car — and he never recovered. Leon Russom and Linda Gray star as Roy and Eileen Stevens, the parents of the college student, who now travel around the country and speak out against the practice of hazing. As a result of their efforts, there is now anti-hazing legislation in 38 states.

He realized he had to make major changes to fit into the '90s.
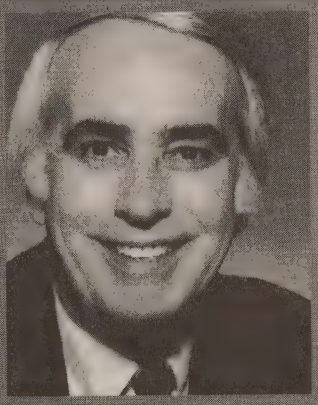
So he gave up smoking.



Time hasn't changed Tom Snyder. He's as unique and irreverent as ever. Whether he's interviewing politicians, celebrities or people in the news, Tom is always the real story. So tune in to Tom Snyder. He's a tough habit to break.

SPECIALS

'The Mao Years'

► PBS 10 p.m.

This documentary focuses on China during the tumultuous — and tyrannical — rule of Mao Zedong from 1949 to 1976. The program mixes archival footage and moving first-hand interviews to present an intimate portrait of a nation that, for much of the period, seemed closed to the Western world. Included are never-before-seen images of Mao, Deng Xiaoping and other leaders working and relaxing. Also, there is a look at cataclysmic events like the Great Leap Forward and the resulting famine it produced. Further explorations are made of the chaos of the Cultural Revolution. and its effect on the country today. In anther segment, Richard Nixon is seen during his historic visit with the Chinese leaders.

PRIME TIME

'Melrose Place'

► FOX 9 p.m.

The dramatic series that focuses on the lives of tenants in a singles' complex stars Heather Locklear as a '90s-style vamp. In this episode, Billy (Andrew Shue) questions the professionalism of Alison's (Courtney Thorne-Smith) client. Meanwhile, Jane (Josie Bissett) throws out Sydney (Laura Leighton) for seeing Michael (Thomas Calabro) — but Jake (Grant Show) and Amanda's (Locklear) relationship heats up.

MOVIES

'Hero'

► HBO 8 p.m..

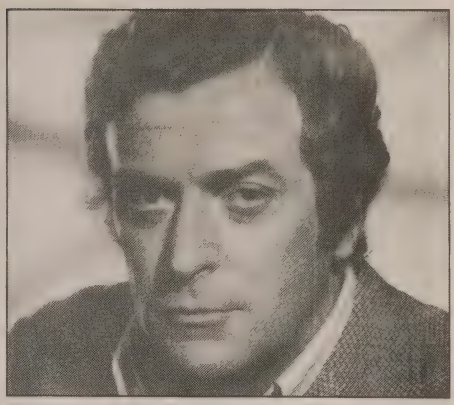
Dustin Hoffman stars as a loser who performs heroic acts in this comedy about mistaken identities. After an air crash, the Hoffman character saves people from the wreckage — among them a news personality (Geena Davis) who tries to find her mysterious rescuer. When she misidentifies an imposter (Andy Garcia) as the hero, the public turns him into a media god. Meanwhile, Hoffman tries to prove to the world that he's the real thing. The film also co-stars Joan Cusack, Kevin J. O'Connor, Maury Chaykin and Tom Arnold.



Michael Caine stars in the movie 'The Eagle Has Landed.'

'Everybody Wins'

► LIFE 9 p.m.

A private detective (Nick Nolte) puts his reputation — and neck — on the line in this quirky mystery movie. When a small-town hooker (Debra Winger) seeks his help in clearing a man convicted of murder, the detective finds himself handling more than he bargained for. The original script was written by Arthur Miller, his first screenplay since "The Misfits." The film's cast also includes Will Patton, Jack Warden and Judith Ivey.

'The Eagle Has Landed'

► TBS 10: 15 p.m.

The action-packed adventure movie based on Jack Higgins' bestseller stars Michael Caine and Donald Sutherland. Plot revolves around a fanciful Nazi attempt to kidnap Winston Churchill, with plenty of twists and turns in the strong script to ensure a fast-paced story. Robert Duvall and Treat Williams co-star.

SPECIALS

'National Geographic Special: Jewels of the Caribbean Sea'

► PBS 8 p.m.

The continuing study of the world in its natural state and beauty has been the focus of countless National Geographic programs. In this offering, world-renowned underwater cinematographer Howard Hall presents an undersea wildlife spectacular. Observed are the island coastlines of the Caribbean and tropical Atlantic — from the Cayman Islands to the Bahamas, St. Croix, Dominica and Belize, where Hall is able to capture the mysteries of ocean life. Also revealed on film is new marine life behavior as well as the diversity of undersea creatures such as the Caribbean reef shark and the loggerhead turtle.

PRIME TIME

'Eye to Eye with Connie Chung'

► CBS 8 p.m.

Connie Chung anchors and reports for this news-based series, featuring a mix of timely and provocative stories. Joining Chung are correspondents Bernard Goldberg, Edie Magnus, Roberta Baskin, Bill Lagattuta and Russ Mitchell.

'Mad About You'

'Wings'

Tim Daly and Steven Weber star as flying-ace brothers in this comedy about a small airfield in Nantucket Island, Massachusetts. The regular "gang" includes Crystal Bernard as Helen Chappel, the lunch counter help, and Roy (David Schramm) the owner of a rival air service. In this segment, Roy's ex-wife returns to Nantucket to rekindle their relationship.

MOVIES

'Funny Face'

► AMC 10 p.m.

Audrey Hepburn and Fred Astaire star in this romantic musical classic featuring the rhapsodic music of George and Ira Gershwin. Astaire portrays a fashion photographer who tries to transform Hepburn into a chic Paris fashion model. Top featured melodies are "He Loves and She Loves," and the hit "S'Wonderful." Astaire based his role on photographer Richard Avedon, who also consulted on the film. Hepburn shines as the shy bookstore attendant who lives out a fairy-tale dream and does a pas de deux to Astaire's rhythms.

Lauren Holly stars as police officer Maxine Stewart in 'Picket Fences.'

PRIME TIME

'Burke's Law'

► CBS 8 p.m.

The police-law series stars Gene Barry as Amos Burke, a millionaire who helps solve unusual cases. Peter Barton stars as his son, Peter Burke, in this updated version of the old series. In this episode, a prankster from Peter's college days Charlie Harden (Rick Dees) is found frozen to death on the hottest day of the year — and Peter Burke is the suspect. When Peter tries to investigate, he learns that Charlie's wife is having an affair — but she's not the only suspect as Charlie's investors soon make clear.

'Picket Fences'

► CBS 9 p.m.

Lauren Holly stars as police officer Maxine Stewart in this offbeat police drama about life in a small town. In this segment, a band of unusual Robin Hood-type robbers plan a bank heist for a peculiar cause — to obtain money to help flood victims in Rome. The twist is that the robbers are led by a young deaf woman (Marlee Matlin) who prides herself on aiding the needy in imaginative — if illegal — ways. Chris Sarandon also stars as a fellow robber.

MOVIES

'Meatballs: Part II'

► TBS 8:45 p.m.

Summer Camp Sasquatch is the site of this screwball comedy that plays havoc with every summer camp joke ever invented. In this sequel, the fate of the entire camp rides on a boxing match against nearby Camp Patton. Slapstick action is provided by the cast of Richard Mulligan, John Mengatti, Kim Richards and John Larroquette.

'Jack the Bear'

► MAX 8 p.m.

The touching comedy film stars Danny De Vito as a widowed TV host who is trying to single-handedly raise his two sons. After his wife's tragic death, he has to learn how to be both mother and father. The title character is his eldest son, a preteen whose romantic adventures are darkened by a psychotic neighbor. When the neighbor (Gary Sinise) poses a threat to his children, DeVito comes to the rescue. Both Sinise and DeVito provide strong performances in the film based on a Dan McCall novel. The co-stars include

'Deadman's Revenge'

► USA 9 p.m.

The movie premiere stars Michael Ironside as Luck Hatcher, a homesteader in the Old West who is imprisoned on trumped-up charges by a greedy railway magnate, Payton McCay (Bruce Dern). But McCay is surprised when a freed Luck returns twelve years later accompanied by a mysterious sidekick, Bodeen (Keith Couloris), a U.S. marshal looking to corral McCay.

Jane Seymour stars in the CBS series 'Dr. Quinn, Medicine Woman.'

PRIME TIME

'Dr. Quinn Medicine Woman'

► CBS 7 p.m.

This series stars Jane Seymour as a woman doctor in the Old West. In this installment, Jake (Jim Knobeloch) is accused of killing a Cheyenne brave and must rely on Sully (Joe Lando) — and Sully's ties with Cloud Dancing (Larry Sellers) — to gain a peaceful resolution after Jake is kidnapped.

'Cops'

► FOX 8:30 p.m.

The police documentary series that focuses on real-life situations with the actual officers who deal with them. Nothing is spared — dead bodies pulled out of cars, drug dealers slammed against cars and hookers making their rounds. This segment follows the police as they track a wanted man who escapes when he's being searched. Also, an investigation of an alleged carjacking.

'Winnetka Road'

► NBC 10 p.m.

The new dramatic series stars Kristen Cloke and Ed Begley Jr. in this often humorous — and provocative — look at life in Oakbluff, a wealthy Midwestern city. The plots will revolve around the subculture of "townies" and how they interact with the remainder of the community. In this episode, George (Meg Tilly) tries hard to fight her growing attraction to her tenant.

MOVIES

'Home Fires Burning'

► KBHK 8 p.m.

Based on the Robert Inman novel, this is a touching look at life in a small Georgia town at the end of World War II. The story is told through the eyes of a cranky local newspaper editor (Barnard Hughes) who is shaken by the changes he sees coming — changes that will eventually turn his life around. Also stars Sada Thompson, Robert Prosky and Elizabeth Berridge.

Kristen Cloke and Ed Begley Jr. star in the new NBC series 'Winnetka Road.'

'Revenge of the Nerds'

► USA 8 p.m.

Campus outsiders form their own "geeky" fraternity in this comedy about the perils of the college class system. Robert Carradine, Richard Israel and Gregg Binkley star as the nerdy college freshmen who are tired of being pushed around by the campus heroes and decide to fight back — with hilarious consequences. Comedy co-stars include Tim Busfield, Andrew Cassese, Matt Salinger and John Goodman ("Roseanne").

'Revenge of the Nerds' stars Richard Israel, Robert Carradine and Gregg Binkley.

'Blindfold'

► A&E 9 p.m.

Steamy comedy about international espionage and a world-renowned scientist starring Rock Hudson and Claudia Cardinale. This 1966 movie provides a lot of charm and slapstick action with Hudson playing a particularly endearing psychiatrist who gets caught in CIA intrigue. The film is a lively spy spoof with a Hitchcock feel — if Hitchcock had directed a comedy.
